

Post cleaning operation: open containers on a conveyor may hold static charges which were generated by the cleaning process. Placing an Ionstorm Long Range Ionising Bar or 3024L Bar across the conveyor above the open topped containers will neutralise such charges both internally and externally preventing the attraction of contaminants.

